

THE ART OF PARTICIPATORY LEADERSHIP

The Art of Designing and Leading Conversations that Matter

Tuesday - Thursday, June 13 - 15, 2017

9:00 AM - 4:30 PM

RCTC Campus, Coffman Center 206/208

*"This training is NOT for spectators... during this workshop
you will learn by observation,
experience, practice, and reflection."*

REGISTRATION

$275

Meals and materials included

Partial scholarships available

<http://tinyurl.com/aplreg2017>

CEUs AVAILABLE

THE ART OF PARTICIPATORY LEADERSHIP

LEADING CONVERSATIONS THAT MATTER

WHAT

This intensive three-day workshop will equip you with simple yet powerful processes that allow you to tap into the collective intelligence and imagination of your team or community.

CONVERSATIONS

MATTER

WHO

For individuals and teams who are seeking to increase their skills and learn ways to engage with others to inspire and activate change.

OBJECTIVES

Participants will learn to

- Host conversations as a core leadership practice for systemic change
- Engage people with diverse backgrounds
- Consider how worldview and practices affect equity and inclusion
- Use a variety of collaborative practices
- Select the most effective approach for each situation
- Take these practices into the community to find solutions to problems

FRAMEWORKS YOU WILL EXPLORE

- Worldview Awareness
- Community of Practice
- Fourfold Practice
- Divergence-Emergence-Convergence
- Chaordic Path
- Loops of System Change
- Chaordic Stepping Stones

APPROACHES YOU WILL EXPLORE

- World Cafe
- Open Space Technology
- Appreciative Inquiry
- Circle Dialog
- Reflective Listening
- Design Process

WHAT EMERGES

- Deep Learning
- Powerful Questions
- Engaging Strategies
- Bold Action
- Courage & Inspiration
- Imagination
- Local Allies